

RttT – September 28, 2011
Report to Board/Community

OTES Pilot Program

Through the efforts of the Madison RttT Transition team, Madison will participating in one of the four newly proposed Ohio Teacher Evaluation Program (OTEP) pilot studies.

District OTEP representatives are: Lynn Meister, Lisa Restelli, Joretta Mok, Chris Scholl, and Tom Wolff

The pilot evaluations will take place at South Elementary and Madison Junior High Schools. Participants at South will be: Chris Scholl Joretta Mok

Melissa Parish Barb Weston

Participants at Junior High : Tom Wolff Lisa Restelli

Amy Bryan Tammy Hammett

The OTEP option that the district is looking at includes a locally designed evaluation system that is aligned to an OTEP model (e.g. Danielson, Marzano, other).

District team participants will:

- 1) implement the agreed to option
- 2) attend 4 training sessions during the school year.
- 3) work cooperatively with an external evaluator
- 4) work with materials such as Ohio Standards for Teaching Profession
- 5) expenses will be charged to RttT
- 6) have completed district GAP Analysis

Transition Team Quarterly Meeting

The Race to the Top transition team quarterly meeting was held on September 28.

Agenda items included: Report out from staff attending 9/23 OTEP meeting

Review of scheduled PD programs for year

RttT fiscal plan for year

Questions or concerns from committee

Scheduling of next quarterly meeting in December.

Budget Update

A final expenditure report has been submitted for FY11 – Once it is approved, those funds will be rolled into the FY12 budget and a revised budget will be submitted for ODE approval. FY 12 allocation is: $ 125,197.

